GOD's Hand on the USA

GOD the Spirit,
the pre-eminent evangeliser, is using the USA to effect freedom of the oppressed that His true gospel of Christ may spiritually free the world.

GOD, from 1861, used Lincoln to free American oppressed enabling greater benefits, prosperity, unity for the American people.

GOD, 2 x 70 years later, is using USA to free oppressed nations that others may benefit from His love gospel Mat28:19 Jn3:16.

but

GOD has few in the world who love their neighbour enough to see this truth and support His work thru His Freedom Principles for global peace.

that

"... this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in all the world as a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come." Mat24:14

Note: GOD's hand in 2Macc10:1-8 was 2 x 70 years before Lk2:7.

Freedom's Way

Deut11:1..you shall love the LORD your GOD, and keep His charge, His statutes, His judgements, and His commandments always.

GOD in love established His basic law thru Moses that His people would teach each generation His statutes, enabling participants to live in health and mutual respect.

GOD in love sent Jesus to teach His holy commands Mat22:36-40 to true believers, and also commanded His true followers to teach "all nations" all His commands, but few comply.

GOD in love gave man free will to obey His commands, along with consequences for their choice Deut11:26-28 Rom1:16-2:15 Rev21:7,8; 22:14,15, either copy-follow Christ Jesus or satan.

GOD in love desires that all believe and obey into His hard call then grow into fulfilling His hard word-law Mat5:44-48; 26:52 Rom13:8-10 Gal5 1Jn4, but very few heed Him.

GOD in love sustains His people thru all manner of abuse + torture, even death, for those fully heeding Him Rom8; 12 1Pet4 Rev11:7, trusting Him alone for judgement-justice.

GOD in love is morally bound to glorify His holy name thru righteous judgements upon evil, or literally any act against His holy law 1Jn3:4,8,10 so very few escape His just fury-wrath.

GOD in love always warns us prior to His terrible acts 2Pet2, whether thru the forces of nature (fire, quake, storm), thru disease, thru evil man (9-11), then comes His sword work Ps45 Rev18.

GOD in love effected civil government (Greeks), civil law (Romans-English), then commanded all believers to honor-obey Rom13 that democracies prosper into global unity-peace.

GOD in love desires global harmony, peace, unity based upon His holy law of love, so any transgression against His law will result in His holy judgement, yet no war is holy-just.

Democratic Culture

Ps33:12 Blessed the nation whose GOD the LORD

GOD thru history has specifically benefited-graced-prospered those communities-nations seeking to adhere to His holy laws, Biblical precepts of equality, freedom, love Ps33; 37:11-20; 30-32.

GOD's freedom principles "naturally" flow into democratically elected governments, all thru His grace, love, power Ps44:1-8, to benefit millions (India) for the sake of a few believers.

GOD's enemies despise His holy law Ps2:1-4; 83:1-6; 94 2Tim3 so hate democracy, murder peace-seekers, rebel-war against elected governments, even support global terror.

GOD's enemies despise established societal laws for peace and harmony, advancing individual-special rights thru Ps94:20 or evil-hateful interpretations Is10, claiming to be just Jn8 1Jn2:18,19.

"We affirm the GOD-given dignity of every person..."

The following is excerpted from:

"Bush's Words to Britons: Both Our Nations Serve the Cause of Freedom "

The New York Times - Thursday, November 20, 2003

Following is a transcript of the speech yesterday by President Bush at Whitehall Palace in London, as recorded by Federal News Service Inc.:

Thank you all. Thank you very much.

Secretary Straw and Secretary Hoon, Admiral Cobbald and Dr. Chipman, distinguished guests. I want to thank you for your very kind welcome that you've given to me and to Laura. I also thank the groups hosting this event, the Royal United Services Institute and the International Institute for Strategic Studies.

We're honored to be in the United Kingdom, and we bring the good wishes of the American people.

It was pointed out to me that the last noted American to visit London stayed in a glass box dangling over the Thames. A few might have been happy to provide similar arrangements for me! I thank Her Majesty the Queen for interceding. We're honored to be staying at her house.

Americans traveling to England always observe more similarities to our country than differences. I've been here only a short time, but I've noticed that the tradition of free speech exercised with enthusiasm is alive and well here in London. We have that at home, too. They now have that right in Baghdad as well.

The people of Great Britain also might see some familiar traits in Americans. We're sometimes faulted for a naïve faith that liberty can change the world. If that's an error, it began with reading too much John Locke and Adam Smith.

Americans have on occasion been called moralists who often speak in terms of right and wrong. That zeal has been inspired by examples on this island: by the tireless compassion of Lord Shaftesbury, the righteous courage of Wilberforce, and the firm determination of the Royal Navy over the decades to fight and end the trade in slaves.

It's rightly said that Americans are a religious people. That's in part because the "Good News" was translated by Tyndale, preached by Wesley, lived out in the example of William Booth. At times, Americans are even said to have a Puritan streak. And where might that have come from? Well, we can start with the Puritans.

To this fine heritage, Americans have added a few traits of our own: the good influence of our immigrants, the spirit of the frontier. Yet there remains a bit of England in every American. So much of our national character comes from you, and we're glad for it.

The fellowship of generations is the cause of common beliefs. We believe in open societies, ordered by moral conviction. We believe in private markets, humanized by compassionate government. We believe in economies that reward effort, communities that protect the weak, and the duty of nations to respect the dignity and the rights of all.

And whether one learns these ideals in County Durham or in West Texas, they instill mutual respect, and they inspire a common purpose. More than an alliance of security and commerce, the British and American peoples have an alliance of values. And today this old and tested alliance is very strong.

The deepest beliefs of our nations set the direction of our foreign policy. We value our own civil rights, so we stand for the human rights of others. We affirm the God-given dignity of every person, so we're moved to action by poverty and oppression and famine and disease.

The United States and Great Britain share a mission in the world beyond the balance of power or the simple pursuit of interest. We seek the advance of freedom and the peace that freedom brings. Together our nations are standing and sacrificing for this high goal in a distant land at this very hour. And America honors the idealism and the bravery of the sons and daughters of Britain.

The last president to stay at Buckingham Palace was an idealist, without question. At a dinner hosted by King George V in 1918, Woodrow Wilson made a pledge. With typical American understatement, he vowed that right and justice would become the predominant and controlling force in the world.

President Wilson had come to Europe with his Fourteen Points for Peace. Many complimented him on this vision, yet some were dubious. Take, for example, the prime minister of France. He complained that God himself had only Ten Commandments. Sounds familiar.

At Wilson's high point of idealism, however, Europe was one short generation from Munich and Auschwitz and the Blitz. Looking back, we see the reasons why. The League of Nations, lacking both credibility and will, collapsed at the first challenge of the dictators. Free nations failed to recognize, much less confront, the aggressive evil in plain sight. And so dictators went about their business, feeding resentments and anti-Semitism, bringing death to innocent people in this city and across the world, and filling the last century with violence and genocide.

Through world war and cold war we learned that idealism, if it is to do any good in this world, requires common purpose and national strength, moral courage, and patience in difficult tasks. And now our generation has need of these qualities.

On Sept. 11, 2001, terrorists left their mark of murder on my country and took the lives of 67 British citizens. With the passing of months and years, it is the natural human desire to resume a quiet life and to put that day behind us, as if waking from a dark dream. The hope that danger has passed is comforting, is understanding -- and it is false.

The attacks that followed -- on Bali, Jakarta, Casablanca, Bombay, Mombasa, Najaf, Jerusalem, Riyadh, Baghdad and Istanbul -- were not dreams. They're part of a global campaign by terrorist networks to intimidate and demoralize all who oppose them.

These terrorists target the innocent, and they kill by the thousands. And they would, if they gain the weapons they seek, kill by the millions and not be finished. The greatest threat of our age is nuclear, chemical or biological weapons in the hands of terrorists and the dictators who aid them.

The evil is in plain sight. The danger only increases with denial. Great responsibilities fall once again to the great democracies. We will face these threats with open eyes, and we will defeat them.

First, international organizations must be equal to the challenges facing our world, from lifting up failing states to opposing proliferation. Like 11 presidents before me, I believe in the international institutions and alliances that America helped to form and helps to lead.

America and Great Britain have done and will do all in their power to prevent the United Nations from solemnly choosing its own irrelevance and inviting the fate of the League of Nations.

The second pillar of peace and security in our world is the willingness of free nations, when the last resort arrives, to restrain aggression and evil by force. There are principled objections to the use of force in every generation, and I credit the good motives behind these views. Those in authority, however, are not judged only by good motivations. The people have given us the duty to defend them, and that duty sometimes requires the violent restraint of violent men. In some cases, the measured use of force is all that protects us from a chaotic world ruled by force.

The third pillar of security is our commitment to the global expansion of democracy, and the hope and progress it brings, as the alternative to instability and hatred and terror.

GOD-given Freedom

GOD pushed the UN to act against Iraq: to free the people of Iraq; to free the world of an outright threat of war; to free the world of rogue weapons of mass destruction. The UN security council voted unanimously against Iraq (resolution 1441 and 1511), but then capitulated when called upon to carry out the resolutions' clear mandates.

When writing about this, Dennis Byrne of Chicago Tribune, noted John F. Kennedy's inaugural speech, to fight against the "common enemies of man: tyranny, poverty, disease and war itself," Then Byrne continued to quote Kennedy, "Let every nation know, whether it wishes us well or ill, that we shall pay any price, bear any burden, meet any hardship, support any friend, oppose any foe to assure the survival and the success of liberty."

Particularly "the rights of man come not from the generosity of the state but from the hand of GOD." Kennedy said, "In the long history of the world, only a few generations have been granted the role of defending freedom in its hour of maximum danger. I do not shrink from this responsibility--I welcome it. I do not believe that any of us would exchange places with any other people or any other generation. The energy, the faith, the devotion which we bring to this endeavor will light our country and all who serve it--and the glow from the fire can truly light the world."

'We Want a Better Future'

There are occasional comments in the Western media that the courageous Mr. Karzai is a "puppet" because of the U.S. presence. But U.S. ambassador Zalmay Khalilzad was much closer to the mark when he told me that for "70% to 80% the fear is not of American domination, but of American abandonment." My very unscientific street surveys make his figures seem conservative.

"Not only do I not want international troops to leave, I want them to stay here for many years," said a man I encountered near a thoroughfare...

A 22-year-old called Farhad -- who'd spent almost all his life in exile in Iran, but had moved back -- explained things to me by placing a can of Coke (what else?) on a bench and putting his hands on either side of it. Talking of his erstwhile place of exile, he said: "Iranians see their country and see that on one side Iraq's been liberated, and on the other Afghanistan's been liberated. No one in Iran likes the fundamentalists. They are praying they are next. Bush has brought peace to Afghanistan, and he will do that to Iraq. Will he do that to Iran?"

GOD-given Freedom

GOD's guiding-pushing, teaching over 4 years prepared the USA for the next 3 x 4 years of His hard work upon many nations that His truth covers the globe, hence the President's comments on Jan 20 2005 for USA.

"The survival of liberty in our land increasingly depends on the success of liberty in other lands. The best hope for peace in our world is the expansion of freedom in all the world."

"So it is the policy of the United States to seek and support the growth of democratic movements and institutions in every nation and culture, with the ultimate goal of ending tyranny in our world."

GOD the Christ commanded believers to share His gospel truth Mat28:19,20, but few love Him enough to obey Jn14:15 Mat9:37 2Tim2:25,26 Jn16; 17; 20, since most prefer the love of this world to His love Deut11:26-28 Jn15:10 1Jn4.

consequently

GOD has shined this truth upon Lincoln and Bush, that sharing is essential to retaining and working is essential for growth Mat13:12 Lk19:26; hence Do or Die, use it or lose, are critical truths for continued USA liberty.

"The rulers of outlaw regimes can know that we still believe as Abraham Lincoln did: Those who deny freedom to others deserve it not for themselves; and, under the rule of a just GOD, cannot long retain it.' "

Or quoting Mark Steyn, "If you don't spread it, in the end your own liberty will be jeopardised", Chicago Sun-Times Jan 23 '05.

[Do or Die]

GOD-given Freedom

GOD, from 2017, will cease "electing" His choice for USA gov't - Congress, allowing man's choice of immoral leaders, so wanted by evil man that it clearly answers why so many hate President G.W. Bush.

GOD-given freedom will appear to increase as man descends into sin, into satan's bondage, into their preferred law, but really lawlessness; so in truth, His freedom will decrease into uncontrolled chaos-war.

How odd, though, that when John F. Kennedy called in his 20th Century inaugural address to go anywhere and pay any price to extend the blessings of freedom, he received lavish praise. When Bush does it in this hopeful new century, he is regarded as a dope.

Bush's point is ignored at our peril. Only someone living on a different planet would miss the connection between the need to expand freedom and the dangers posed by Middle East terrorists' own reverse crusade against freedom.

It can't be said enough: Because we live so close to these events, it sometimes is hard to understand that these are historic times, when the free world is facing decisions of epic proportions. George Bush understands it.

GOD clearly shows us that, even in modern times, weak men fail to stand firm against evil doers;
whether the school bully, local gangs or global tyrants, all are equal in the LORD's eye and must be stopped.

GOD clearly shows us that Chamberlain's failure to rebuke and warn Hitler against aggression later cost the world many millions of lives and recent UN failures to rebuke and warn Hussein is costing lives.

GOD clearly shows us when He pushed men to stand firm against evil aggressors then

GOD's revelation to LarryPart 1

The LORD Jesus Christ has commanded that this record be written for the purpose that those that read it may understand His intention and will, and for those that will come afterwards that they might know the truth by revelation of prophecy, by His grace.

To all that have a heart to understand:

On the evening of 10 January '99 I was returning from Waldorf, MD via car to Pennsylvania. While driving I came under heavy and manifold temptations. I endured such things, and subjected myself to GOD by pleading for His mercy to uphold me and crying out for my faith to be unbroken.

It was after 40 minutes of great pressure that He released the faith from His own heart, that I needed to continue to endure, through His Spirit. Drawing upon the faith was a literal and tactile experience whereby I perceived the power of the righteousness of GOD being manifested upon me and within my chest (heart) enabling me to stand stead-fast, loyal, and true. Praise be to GOD for His true mercy and manifest grace! Amen. The uplifting was perceivable as the vessel was released from a very real and manifest oppression of the flesh's desires and affections. Again, I thank you LORD for delivering me from sin and giving me a mind to suffer temptation. Amen.

While drawing on His faith through the Spirit a vision was given to me and I saw clearly a large room above my head wherein entered a man with a large sword, (climbing up into the room from a dark pit). The man and the sword were both made up of pure white light.

He climbed up into the room and upon standing He proceeded to wave the sword above his head and swing it around himself in a circle. This went on two or three times as he cleared the room of Christ's enemies and mine.

Although I could not see the enemies I did perceive tactilely, or rather discern, that the weight of oppression was lifted, for which cause I gave thanks and praised the GOD of truth.

Upon the release I then witnessed the man standing above the earth, with the earth being small and at his feet he plunged the sword straight down upon the earth, and he stood with one hand on the sword and the other hand and his head raised up to the GOD of Heaven.

While he stood, as it were immovable, I saw the Great Shepherd appear above him, being much larger in size, with His hands out-stretched to receive him into Himself. Hallelujah!

The Great Shepherd was also made of pure white light and all these things did happen in the large room and secret place above my head and above the whole earth.

The Great Shepherd stood with outstretched hands to the earth and as He stood there He unfolded from within Himself, whereby I say, transfigured Himself from within, (from underneath His cloak), into a mighty Warrior King with a great and powerful sword.

With quickness and ease of might He swung His sword through the room and with both hands He plunged His sword onto the earth which was at His feet and there He stood fixed with both hands upon the handle of the sword, which was pointing down and touching the earth.

The Warrior King then transformed Himself into the Great Shepherd and then back into the Warrior King and then back into the Great Shepherd with the vision ending with the Great Shepherd standing with out-stretched hands to the whole earth, but not before He opened His cloak only enough to reveal to me the Warrior King within. Amen.

GOD's revelation to LarryPart 2

Now, I understand the vision, as the LORD Jesus Christ has made much revelation to me through His Spirit and His word concerning the mystery of His will on earth.

Even so, by a revelation inspired vision I saw by His Spirit the whole of global ministries; as they were like great fishing nets and even the same nets were like cargo nets. Each net was positioned in respect to the earth such as they surrounded and encompassed a certain portion of the earth's "crop."

On each net was a silver ring, thick and without seam.

I was then shown a rope that threaded itself through the rings, attached to the nets, and tied at the end.

I then saw a hand made of pure white light that grabbed the rope and with ease of might "yanked" the rope upwards abruptly from the earth where I saw all of the nets hanging from the rope, such that it all appeared as a fishing stringer.

The word of the LORD came upon me, saying;

"son of man write these things so that those of understanding might fear. For it is My intention to gather the nations so that I might pour out my wrath upon all the earth. And in saving I will save the residue and remnant, my chosen people."

Let all those that understand, fear and obey and serve GOD, for in His mercy we will find rest.

The interpretation is this: The LORD Jesus our GOD by His mercy and will has purposed to use CCCInc. to in fact gather, assemble His house and exercise His rule over His house; inasmuch as He is establishing judges as in the past and setting up shepherds.

The immediate consequence is for gathering and growing and guiding His flock into Himself, the result thereof being His judgement and wrath upon all that disobey and His salvation unto all that do obey.

CCCInc. is in essence the rod with which Christ is establishing His government (reign), not only in the hearts of men but upon the whole earth.

Again; it (CCCInc) is the top of the mountain from which new wine does presently pour, it is His will on earth.

All who can understand, let them understand what His Spirit says, and let them come and freely receive.

Ps2...Why do the nations rage, and the people plot a vain thing?

2 The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD and against His Anointed,

3 "Let us break their bonds in pieces and cast away their cords from us."

4 He who sits in the heavens shall laugh; the LORD shall hold them in derision.

5 Then He shall speak to them in His wrath, and distress them in His deep displeasure:

6 "Yet I have set My King on My holy hill of Zion."

7 "I will declare the decree: the LORD has said to Me, 'You My Son, today I have begotten You.

8 Ask of Me, and I will give the nations (for) Your inheritance, and the ends of the earth Your possession.

9 You shall break them with a rod of iron; you shall dash them to pieces like a potter's vessel.'"'

10 Now therefore, be wise, O kings; be instructed, you judges of the earth.

11 Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

12 Kiss the Son, lest He be angry, and you perish (along) the way, when His wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed all those who put their trust in Him.

Ps110...The LORD said to my Lord, "Sit at My right hand, till I make Your enemies Your footstool."

2 The LORD shall send the rod of Your strength out of Zion. Rule in the midst of Your enemies!

3 Your people (are) volunteers in the day of Your power; in the beauties of holiness, from the womb of the morning, You have the dew of Your youth.

4 The LORD has sworn and will not relent, "You a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek."

5 The Lord at Your right hand; he shall execute kings in the day of His wrath.

6 He shall judge among the nations, he shall fill (the earth) with dead bodies, he shall execute the heads of many countries.

7 He shall drink of the brook by the wayside; therefore He shall lift up the head.

Ps7:9...Oh, let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end, but establish the just; for the righteous GOD tests the hearts and minds.

10 My defense of GOD, who saves the upright in heart.

11 GOD a just judge, and GOD is angry (with the wicked) every day.

12 If he does not turn back, He will sharpen His sword; He bends His bow and makes it ready.

13 He also prepares for Himself instruments of death; He makes His arrows into fiery shafts.

Ps45:3...Gird Your sword upon (the) thigh, O Mighty One, with Your glory and Your majesty.

4 And in Your majesty ride prosperously because of truth, humility, righteousness; and Your right hand shall teach You awesome things.

5 Your arrows sharp in the heart of the King's enemies; the peoples fall under You.

6 Your throne, O GOD, forever and ever, a scepter of righteousness, the scepter of Your kingdom.

7 You love righteousness and hate wickedness; therefore GOD, Your GOD, has anointed You with the oil of gladness more than Your companions.

Rev19:11...Now I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse. And He who sat on him, called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and makes war.

12 His eyes like a flame of fire, and on His head many crowns. He had a name written that no one knew except Himself.

13 He clothed with a robe dipped in blood, and His name is called The Word of GOD.

14 And the armies in heaven, clothed in fine linen, white and clean, followed Him on white horses.

15 Now out of His mouth goes a sharp sword, that with it He should strike the nations. And He Himself will rule them with a rod of iron. He Himself treads the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty GOD.

16 And He has on (His) robe and on His thigh a name written: KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.
